

ROYAL COMMISSION INTO DOMESTIC, FAMILY & SEXUAL VIOLENCE HEARINGS AT COOPER PEDY

The South Australian Royal Commission into Domestic, Family and Sexual Violence, which began on July 1, 2024, held hearings at Cooper Pedy during last week, and heard from Front-line Workers.

The commission is examining the state's systems for addressing these issues to identify areas for improvement and make recommendations for systemic change.

The Royal Commission aims to understand how the domestic, family, and sexual violence systems in South Australia are currently functioning and identify areas for improvement to better meet the needs of those who interact with them.

The commission is focusing on prevention, early intervention, the state's response, and recovery and healing, with the goal of achieving generational change to end domestic, family, and sexual violence.

The Royal Commission will examine existing policies, legislation, administrative arrangements, system structure, and funding levers in South Australia.

Natasha Stott Despoja AO has been appointed as the Royal Commissioner.

The Royal Commissioner, Natasha Stott Despoja AO, will deliver her report to the South Australian Government on July 1, 2025, with recommendations on what needs to change to create a safer community.

The Royal Commission is holding public hearings to hear evidence from experts, service providers, and those with lived experience of domestic, family, and sexual violence.

The commission has published an Issues Paper and a companion Background Paper to gather input from the public.

"Share With Us" Initiative: The Royal Commission invites people with lived experience of domestic, family and/or sexual violence, or those supporting someone experiencing violence, to share their views and insights.

The commission heard that SA Police responds to 100 domestic incidents and issues nine intervention orders on average each day. It also heard that more than one quarter of Australian children experience some form of physical, sexual or emotional abuse, and that 44 per cent of young Australians have been exposed to family violence.

The Commission reached a significant milestone last week as we held our final two Public Hearings, ahead of a regional visit to Cooper Pedy, the APY Lands and Alice Springs.

Commissioner Natasha Stott Despoja AO said, "I want to thank all witnesses who have provided valuable insights and evidence, and helped expand our understanding of the sector in SA, including identifying gaps and problems in services and supports; highlighting resource issues, and providing examples innovation, collaboration and best practice."

"I am pleased that we have connected with a broad cross-section of the South Australian community, as part of our efforts to listen and learn – to hear and understand – more about the scourge that is domestic, family and sexual violence," she said.

Taking part in the discussions at Cooper Pedy were: Annette Marsh - Support Worker for Return to Country & Sobering-up Centre Driver; Monique Harding Return to Country Coordinator; Royal Commissioner, Natasha Stott Despoja AO; Jennifer Riessen, Manager Umoona Community Sobering Up Centre; and below Dora Mushongera - General Manager at Umoona Community Council

Ms Dora Mushongera, above, is the General Manager at Umoona Community Council where Royal Commission hearings were held during last week at Cooper Pedy.

Ms Mushongera said, "It was an honour to have Commissioner Natasha Stott Despoja and her team hold some of their Hearings at Umoona Community."

"I also thank my staff for their willingness and sincerity in assisting with the Royal Commission."

As a front-line service were very pleased to participate and be part of any future measures that the Commissioner recommends as an outcome."

"It was important for the Royal Commission to come into regional and remote South Australia in order to hear from those impacted by domestic, family and sexual violence – particularly about where the gaps are in service delivery, what other problems distance raises."

The Commission held hearings Port Pirie/Port Augusta, Port Lincoln, Kangaroo Island, Mt Gambier, the Riverland and Murraylands and now it has reached the end of public consultation.

Over 10 days of Public Hearings, they heard from a total of 64 witnesses over 48 sessions, in addition to over 100 listening sessions across the state.

The listening sessions provided real and relevant insights, and each helping us to build a comprehensive understanding of the issues facing those impacted by domestic, family and sexual violence. This valuable information will guide our recommendations over coming weeks and months.

Since November 2024 – through our Public Hearings, listening sessions, submissions and Share With Us survey the Royal Commission has heard from front line workers, academics and leaders in the field, from women, men and children, non binary South Australians, young and older South Australians, Aboriginal and Torres Strait islander people, people living with disability, people within the LGBTQIA+ communities, CALD communities, people living in regional and remote South Australia, experts from interstate and overseas who have experience in service delivery, response, intervention and recovery.

As at 31/03/2025 the Public Hearings are complete – aside from two upcoming regional visits to the APY Lands and Ceduna. The Royal Commission switches to focus on its final report and developing its recommendations.

Hey Coober Pedians, my father suffered a second home invasion in two months this morning - what's going on???

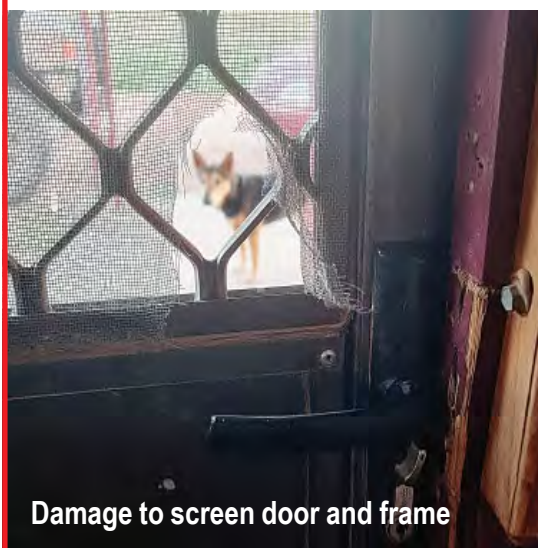

SECOND OVERNIGHT HOME INVASION - the SAME ELDERLY RESIDENT

While an 86 year old long term resident of Coober Pedy slept in his home, a gang of thugs entered his property and committed a second robbery. Premeditated? Most likely.

The thugs firstly turned off the electricity at the metre. They then broke into his shed and pulled out the tools they needed for the breakin. They broke into his home while he slept, causing considerable damage. They systematically ransacked his personal possessions using torches. Had they been there before? Possibly.

They took his mobile telephone, his wallet with money, licence and other cards etc. They went through his cupboards and drawers taking items that could potentially be used as weapons, and other items that were of some value.

This gang also left their trademark at the scene. With a can of silver paint taken from the shed on the property they painted a number 4 on the door of their victim's home. On the concrete verandah they painted another number 4 and the initials KT

UPDATE FOR COMMUNITY

ALLIANCE MEMBERS

Mtg with Patrick Conlon

(and Exec. assist)

Wednesday 26th March 2021 at 1130am

WHISTLEBLOWER

1. Mr Conlon began our meeting by raising the George Naumovic case in response to the Alliance’s letter on behalf of its members, asking “so far, what is the total cost of legal fees, and including the financial impact on ratepayers of time, travel, accommodation and other that the council has spent in the last 6 years pursuing whistleblower George Naumovic?”
2. Mr Conlon stated that his executive assistant was in the process off collating all relevant documents relating to George Naumovic, presumably to answer our questions.
3. He stated that George Naumovic had been declared bankrupt through these proceedings and that any properties in Naumovic’s name did not amount to anywhere near the amount spent by council on this case. In his opinion he said the case was not worth pursuing. Mr. Conlon asserted that George Naumovic had lost all cases, however the local residents know this to be non-factual.
4. The Alliance will push forward to finding the true cost to Coober Pedy’s Ratepayers of pursuing whistleblower George Naumovic. From a ratepayer’s perspective it is clear that the entire saga of document exposure and litigation was instigated by Administrator Tim Jackson, therefore in conjunction with our members’ wishes, we would strongly urge the Council to seek cost recovery of our funds from Mr. Jackson.
- MORE QUESTIONS from concerned ratepayers including “Q. For the entire 6 years to the current date, did council pursue Naumovic, based on available funds at Council or was the legal pursuit conducted under insurance?”

FUTURE ELECTED COUNCIL FOR

COOBER PEDY

- 1.Mr Conlon said, there will be a restructuring of the former council in that it will have fewer committee members, not 9 like before as this was far too many. Amendments will be made to construct a working formula for council to follow. Stating once again that Administration do not want to revisit Coober Pedy regarding its Council.
- 2.That the council will be monitored closely and instructed in a manner contusive to order. At such a time that CP Council can demonstrate proper procedures, financially and other, ie: allocating monies for breakdowns, maintenance etc, only then will state government be supportive of loaning or funding projects for CP.
- 3.He said, and I quote,” we will still be in debt to EDL and need to continue our payments, there was no getting out of that.” Unquote.
- 4.Mr Conlon, together with the state government and SA Water are still meeting in regard to CP Water and plant, stating once again that Water needs to be out of CP Council hands for Council to run effectively in the future.

ROADS / WATER DAMAGE

- We briefed our concerns in regard to the state of the bitumen or lack off, potholes after recent rain in particular. Mr Conlon agreed with all we had to say and said that council needed a bigger or at least a working bitumen gravel sieve. He had enquired about loaning one through 2 different councils and companies but hadn’t obtained one as yet. Otherwise buying one and needing $25,000 but didn’t have the money, he said.
1. When asked why the roads are not laid properly in the first instance he replied, it would have been lack of money or equipment in the past.
2. A lifelong resident, business owner and rate payer, in his later years who relies on his gopher mobility scooter to get around, bought to our attention a matter of great concern whereby he had taken his grievance to council in person, regarding a blocked or several blocked culverts which diverted storm water runoff into his workshop-yard rendering him no access to get around for days and submerging work materials.
- He was not directed to the correct person at the council offices and no message was passed on (it seems) More phone calls made to no avail. A second rain event occurred on the weekend following, close to 2 inches of rain; much bigger than the first, and still no contact from council.
3. Administrator, Mr Patrick Conlon did not comment but the assistant executive Catherine Bell, took down a contact number for the resident.

There was no mention of what actions have been taken, as yet, but according to the resident, nobody from the council had contacted him after he lodged three complaints personally.

AIRPORT UPGRADE

1.Mr Conlon said the Airport is Federally funded and it was being looked at being upgraded in the future.

COUNCIL MEETINGS

- 1.We asked again, on behalf of our members, about the 3pm meetings being changed back to 7pm so that the working class can attend.
- 2.His response was he would have to take the proposal to the other two administrators, being our council apparently, albeit they do not reside here visit very often or have contact with the community. The last excuse given for keeping the public out of meetings was the cost of staff overtime.
- 3.Prior excuse was, the meeting can be attended on Webinar and or on their website at any time, after the event. The last meeting recording was posted online at this date: Council Meeting Recording - 23 August 2023
- 4.The Alliance will keep at them with this issue as it is important that we the community have the right to be involved in issues concerning our town, voice our opinion, to be heard and to question any issues raised at these meetings or in the general management of our town.

5. RM Development Program | Leader Guide Leader

7. Annual Business Plan 2024-25
- 8.Page 15
- 9.Council is now in the fifth year of transitioning to this methodology. In the 2024-25 year general rate revenue will increase by 10%. More information regarding rates can be found on page 31.
10. LOCAL ROADS AND PATHS
11. What we do
12. We maintain 31km of sealed roads, 127km of unsealed roads and various other related assets including kerbing, footpaths, culverts, road signage and street lighting.

14. Costs
15. We will spend $0.98M on maintaining our roads and paths using the equivalent of 3.4 full-time staff.
16. Funding
17. Local roads and paths are funded through our annual local roads funding from the SA Grants Commission, with the difference funded through general rates

ICAC Evaluation of SAFECOM, CFS, MFS & SES

3/4/2025 the Commission's report Evaluation of SAFECOM and the Country Fire Service, Metropolitan Fire Service and State Emergency Service on the management of conflicts of interests was tabled in Parliament.

Commissioner Townsend said, "All four agencies have taken positive steps in recent years to improve the management of conflicts of interests. This report contains recommendations to address areas that would benefit from further consideration."

The Commission has made 25 recommendations to assist SAFECOM and the Country Fire Service (CFS), Metropolitan Fire Service (MFS) and State Emergency Service (SES) to better manage the corruption risks associated with conflicts of interests. These recommendations detail improvements for policies, procedures and communications across the agencies.

"When not identified, disclosed and adequately managed, conflicts of interests heighten the risk that corruption will occur," continued Commissioner Townsend. "This evaluation – and the openness of the emergency services to engage with us – offers a strong example of how to improve management of conflicts of interest in emergency services. This is also applicable in public administration more broadly.

"I thank the SAFECOM Chief Executive, Chair of the SAFECOM Board and the Chief Officers of the CFS, MFS and SES for their cooperation with the evaluation."

The report is available on the Commission's website here.

REPORT TO COOBER PEDY COMMUNITY
ALLIANCE MEMBERS

OPEN LETTER TO GARRY HERDEGEN &
RESPONSE Wed, 26 Feb 2025 6:49PM

Dear Mr. Herdegen

Alliance members expressed disappointed that you did not attend our January 25th Alliance meeting in order to answer an array of questions regarding the impact your council's financial situation is having on them personally. As you were not there to answer some of the questions that were put forward, we are now writing for that information.

At our last Alliance meeting on January 25th 2025, members asked questions on information concerning Ratepayer funds (public money) used to finance litigation against a Coober Pedy ratepayer, whistle-blower, and former elected member George Naumovic.

We understand that the council has pursued Mr. Naumovic through the courts for six years (from 2019) without any outcome.

In light of the rapid rise in Council debt ($19M), the Coober Pedy Community Alliance is seeking financial transparency for its members and the community, and requests the following information.

1. What is the total cost (to date) of legal fees spent in all litigation with George Naumovic 2019 – 2025?
2. What is the total cost of administration/hours, travel and accommodation, compiling documentation and other, involving staff at Coober Pedy or subcontractors in all litigation with George Naumovic?
3. What are the Administrators/Council expecting to achieve by continuing in their legal pursuit of George Naumovic?
- 4.As the Administrators/Council has been using Ratepayer's funds in their pursuit of Mr. Naumovic, it must believe that there is a benefit to the Ratepayers, can you please outline what that benefit might be?
5. Is the state government assisting with any costs related to the legal proceedings with whistleblower George Naumovic?
6. How much has the council budgeted for 2024-2025 for both legal and administrative costs to council concerning George Naumovic? Please supply a copy of those budget figures.
- 7 Please supply similar budget figures for each successive year of litigation
- 8 What is the expected cost recovery of all the prosecutions against George Naumovic?

Please respond before the 1st March 2025.
Kind Regards,

John Di Donna; Coober Pedy Community Alliance;

RESPONSE TO OPEN LETTER – GARY HERDEGEN

Hi John

Thanks for your email. I will respond in 2 parts
Part 1

You indicated disappointment that I did not attend a meeting. Please note I was neither invited to attend nor informed there were any questions from the community. I would not normally attend an Alliance Meeting.

I received your email with the open letter the evening of the 26th February. Coincidentally it was the evening before I was to attend the Supreme Court regarding the matters you mention in your letter. You sought a response within 48hrs which I considered to be unreasonable given the duration of the issue you acknowledged in your letter.

I understand the matter was discussed in your meeting with Councils Principal Administrator on Friday the 28th where you were informed that a response in your requested timeframe was not possible.

Part 2 Response to questions.

1. What is the total cost (to date) of legal fees spent in all litigation with George Naumovic 2019 – 2025?
2. What is the total cost of administration/hours, travel and accommodation, compiling documentation and other, involving staff at Coober Pedy or subcontractors in all litigation with George Naumovic?

There is a significant amount of time and cost that needs to be allocated to respond to your questions given the 6 year timeframe you have requested and as the case is in progress and confidential at present I am unable to provide an accurate response. I believe the outcome is nearing completion and will provide a response when staffing resources allow for a response to your request.

3. What are the Administrators/Council expecting to achieve by continuing in their legal pursuit of George Naumovic?

Council is seeking payment from Mr Naumovic for the determination placed on him by the court for payment to Council

4. As the Administrators/Council has been using Ratepayer's funds in their pursuit of Mr. Naumovic, it must believe that there is a benefit to the Ratepayers, can you please outline what that benefit might be?

As per question 3 Council is working to recoup funds owed to it by Mr Naumovic

5. Is the state government assisting with any costs related to the legal proceedings with whistleblower George Naumovic?

I am not aware of any assistance being received by either party.

6. How much has the council budgeted for 2024-2025 for both legal and administrative costs to council concerning George Naumovic? Please supply a copy of those budget figures.

Council has not budgeted specific funds for these proceedings. Councils always have an allowance for legal fees for many reasons requiring specialist legal advice.

7. Please supply similar budget figures for each successive year of litigation.

I do not believe there have been any specific funds budgeted for this case. There have been long periods where there was no expenditure during this case.

8. What is the expected cost recovery of all the prosecutions against George Naumovic?

The final cost recovery is based on the outcome of proceedings currently in progress. Council will seek to recover the amounts owed to it and any costs incurred where possible.

Kind Regards, Garry

Illegal tobacco

Criminals profit. Your community pays.

What is illegal tobacco?

- Tobacco grown, manufactured or produced in Australia without a licence.
- Imported tobacco for which no duty has been paid.
- Tobacco sold without payment of taxes.

$2.7 billion

went to criminals instead of the community*

Growing tobacco in Australia for commercial sale or personal use is illegal.

*2022–23

Life cycle of illegal tobacco

Organised crime syndicates plough the land, ready to plant tobacco seedlings.

Seedlings take 2 to 3 months to grow into mature tobacco plants.

Mature tobacco plants are large and leafy and many have long, trumpet-shaped, white-pinkish flowers.

Harvested tobacco leaves are dried in a kiln and then cut and sold as loose tobacco, otherwise known as 'chop-chop'.

Would you recognise a tobacco plant?

- 2.5 metres tall
- Large green leaves
- Long trumpet-shaped, white-pinkish flowers
- May resemble kale, cabbage or corn.

Signs of an illegal growing operation

- Intense labour production between November and May
- People approaching real estate agents, landowners or farmers to lease land
- Unusual earthworks along creeks and rivers
- Unexplained and potentially unlawful use of water resources
- An unexplained strong tobacco odour
- Unusual source of loose tobacco.

ATO partnerships

The ATO is part of the Illicit Tobacco Taskforce (ITTF), which was established on 1 July 2018 to detect, disrupt and dismantle serious organised crime syndicates that deal in illicit tobacco.

Let's cut illegal tobacco off at the root

- Report growing operations
- Stop buying illegal tobacco products
- Report illegal tobacco products being sold
- Report suspicious activity.

Phone 1800 060 062 to anonymously report suspicious activity.

New powers to tackle knife crime

Stronger police powers to tackle knife crime have officially come into effect in South Australia.

The newly commenced reforms allow the Police Commissioner to declare certain places for the purposes of new wandering search powers. SAPOL will be required to gazette the declaration and notify the relevant authority in charge of that declared place.

New places that can now be declared to enable police to conduct metal detector searches include public transport hubs and vehicles, and shopping centre precincts.

The new reforms also give SA Police officers the ability to conduct metal detector searches on certain people – including people previously convicted of murder, manslaughter, causing harm, shooting at police, possessing an object with intent to kill or maim, or possessing a firearm with the intent to commit an offence.

Previously, police were only able to conduct a metal detector search on these cohorts if they had a reasonable cause to suspect they had or would commit an offence.

The commencement of these new reforms constitutes the first phase of the Government’s comprehensive knife crime package roll-out, with work continuing to be undertaken in preparation for the commencement of the new age of sale of knives, the new offence of supplying a knife to a minor, and the new requirement of safe storage of knives in retail premises.

Attorney General Kyam Maher said, “This will be a significant step forward for police in tackling the issue of knife crime in our community and further adding to public safety.”

“Giving police greater powers to search individuals who may pose a threat will be an essential tool in combatting knife crime, while clear requirements on who officers need to notify prior to searches in certain places will ensure there is a level of transparency around them.”

“While there has not been any significant increase in knife-related crimes, it is important that police are equipped with the necessary powers to prevent such incidents from occurring.”

Police Minister Stephen Mullighan said, “Giving Police these new powers to wand search individuals means they can stop knife crime before it happens in South Australia.”

“It’s just one measure in a raft of changes to ensure our State has the toughest knife laws in the country.”

“We have boosted police funding by more than $300 million, to ensure there are more sworn officers on the beat and that those officers have the equipment they need to protect the community.”

Police Commissioner Grant Stevens said, “These amendments mean police will have more powers to conduct metal detector searches at more locations.”

“This will include locations such as shopping centres, public transport hubs, on public transport and at licensed premises. Previously, police were only able to conduct a metal detector search in certain locations.”

“The additional powers will allow police to better protect the community as they frequent different areas of South Australia. “Any steps we can take to improve safety within the community can only be positive.”

Celebrating Harmony Week at Coober Pedy Area School

From Wednesday 5th March to Friday 7th March, we celebrated Harmony Week at CPAS, a time to embrace diversity and share the beautiful cultures that make our community so unique!

Harmony Week is all about celebrating inclusion, understanding, and the many vibrant cultures that make up Australia.

Our staff kicked off the celebrations with an amazing feast featuring home-cooked dishes from around the world.

From Australian Rocky Road to Mexican Enchiladas to Thai Vermicelli Noodle Salad, the variety was incredible, and each dish was deliciously enjoyed.

A huge THANK YOU to all the staff who generously prepared and shared their cultural food – your efforts made this event extra special!

On Friday, our students were treated to some incredible international finger foods, made by the talented team at Outback Bar & Grill.

Our wonderful Special Events Committee served up Greek meatballs with tzatziki, crispy Malaysian vegetarian curry puffs, freshly rolled Vietnamese pork cold rolls with house-made dipping sauce, and of course, delicious Greek rice pudding (Rizogalo)!

We were so excited about the food, we forgot to snap a pic – but trust us, it was AMAZING! ?

Throughout the week, students engaged in cultural activities and took part in fun games during breaks.

Some also enjoyed some relaxing downtime with coloring activities in the library. It was a week filled with joy, connection, and celebration!

A big thank you to everyone who participated and made Harmony Week at CPAS so memorable!

We hope you all enjoyed the celebrations as much as we did.

Student from all cultures and nationalities line up to try out the delicious cuisine prepared by staff at Coober Pedy Area School during the Harmony Week celebrations
