IS A CULTURE OF HASTE & WASTE SEEING REGIONAL ROADS LESS THAN SAFE OR PRODUCTIVE

Opinion: John Di Donna©

Politicians and bureaucrats are once again wasting taxpayers' money on projects that won't improve the safety and productivity of heavy vehicles or motorists.

The $5 million Stuart Highway Rest Areas Upgrade project is jointly funded (80:20) by the Australian and South Australian governments.

What government body, group or organisation decided to upgrade one rest area and build a rest area within 45 km of each other, costing $5 million?

At present, nine rest areas, including refuelling at Pimba and Glendambo, are situated along the 114 km stretch between Pimba and Glendambo.

While the distance between Glendambo and Cooper Pedy is 254km, it has only twelve rest stops. In my opinion, Glendambo to Cooper Pedy is the most dangerous section of the highway.

Motorists and Heavy vehicle drivers are not looking for extra rest areas. They want existing rest areas sealed and shelters with all rest areas adequately maintained.

The Heavy Vehicle Rest Area (HVRA) initiative was launched in 2020. They are currently poorly maintained, with two rest areas without litter bins.

Motorists want to travel safely on the highway without vegetation growing to the edge of the bitumen, which is hazardous to wildlife, livestock and motorists.

Bitumen is left broken away from the edge of the road for months, creating an enormous hole that is unsafe for motorists. Lack of road work can lead to costly vehicle repairs or fatal accidents.

Uneven surfaces cause heavy vehicles and motorists to slow down as they try to stay in their seats, not bounce out, hit their heads on the roof, or lose control of the trailers or caravans.

The deterioration of the road network appears to be due to hurried work and neglect by the government and its contractors. The government needs to wake up and start a full inquiry and audit.

Throwing 1.5 billion dollars for road infrastructure to the state, with only a portion used for maintenance, on the South Australia road network, and a more significant proportion is invested in Adelaide and its surroundings!

The Department of Planning, Transport, and Infrastructure has no road gang or grader operator for the entire country roads in this state. So, once again, the cost of maintaining and repairing the outback roads will increase massively as the contractors demand more taxpayers' money and offer less maintenance.

The Federal government budget 2023 increased the heavy vehicle road user charge (TAX). Heavy vehicles are already heavily taxed, with over $15,000.00 in registration fees for the prime mover and every trailer and dolly. All this money goes to the government before the truckies start the truck.

Prime Minister Albo is naive if he thinks the truckies isn't going to pass $228.2 million (2023/2024) new charges to the consumer. The deterioration of the road network is due to neglect by the government and contracts. NOT the motorist.

The roof from the Information shelter at the Ingomar rest area (near Cooper Pedy) has been impaled on a nearby fence since October 2024. Is the current State Government really in touch with roadside maintenance in the Far North of the State? Photo inset: Damaged Ingomar information sign.

Obituary

Albert McCormack

Albert was born on 5th November, 1933, the second of five sons to William and Matilda McCormack, in Castlederg, County Tyrone.

The family moved to Adelaide in 1948 when Albert was 14 years old. William had been sponsored to emigrate by the Methodist church, to manage Aldersgate aged care gardens and orchards.

Albert McCormack
5th November 1933 -
7th April 2025

Three of the brothers, Albert, George and Ervine, were taken to a Methodist boys home in Magill, and didn't see their parents much for the next six months. The family were reunited when a renovated home in Felixstowe became available.

Albert did National Service at Woodville Army base and used to race up and down the Adelaide hills on his Norton Dominator. He reckoned he was the fastest rider from Adelaide to Woodside. In order to get the love of his life Vicki Chapman to agree to marry him, Albert had to promise to give up motorcycle racing.

Albert embraced life in Australia, and saw himself as one hundred percent Australian throughout his life.

Albert's passion for heavy equipment and earthmoving developed whilst driving tractors working at market gardens, then driving trucks in the army. This led to an exciting life full of challenges and achievements. He kept moving dirt right up until the end, at his quarry south of Coober Pedy.

Albert became a contractor building Section Two of the Gorge road in the Adelaide hills.

In 1967, opal was calling, so the family moved to Andamooka, moving to Coober Pedy two years later where it was more plentiful.

Brothers Robert, Albert, George, Ervine and Arnold all lived in Coober Pedy with their families at the same time from about 1969 to 1975. George still lives here now.

The years went by - opal mining, heavy earthmoving contracting, quarrying, heavy haulage, concreting, building outback tracks for drilling rigs. He built the Marina at Wallaroo and started the Adelaide rubbish dump at Port Wakefield. His passion for heavy machinery never waned.

Years earlier, Albert had been carting a load of steel for Mr Amarosi when his truck caught fire and warped the metal. Albert lost his truck, and the metal was repurposed to make the metal tree which is now on display at the Big Winch.

In 1989 Albert's front end loader needed to be rescued out of Lake Phillipson where it remained fully submerged after heavy rain six months earlier. Albert's son John, and son in law Steve got their diving gear on, attaching chains to the loader in zero visibility muddy water. It was towed out, the oil drained, batteries replaced, and started up 30 minutes later.

Albert had a terrific community spirit. He was a member of the Lions club, and served as the Coober Pedy Fire Chief for many years. He served on the local council, and was an active member of the church community.

He always enjoyed a yarn, with a steady stream of people dropping into his workshop opposite the rear of the drive in screen for mechanical advice and bloke gossip. His brother Arnold reported he had a tremendous mechanical knowledge of heavy machinery, and helped many people get out of trouble over the years.

Albert loved his wife Vicki, (Vicki McCormack OAM) who was well known locally as a community health nurse. She received an Order of Australia Merit for her work with Aboriginal people in Coober Pedy.

Albert lived the life he chose, and passed away suddenly at home, age 91.

Albert's funeral service will be held at the Catacomb Church on Friday 2nd May 2025 at 10.30 am .

The committal will follow the service at Boot Hill Cemetery, alongside Sister Vicki.

COOBER PEDY CFS HONOURS ALBERT McCORMACK IN HIS 90th YEAR

Albert McCormack is a figure prominently featured in Coober Pedy's history, particularly for his role in establishing the Coober Pedy Fire Brigade is mentioned in various articles published by the Coober Pedy Regional Times over many decades.

The newspaper often covered news related to the Coober Pedy Fire Brigade and the community, including stories about Albert McCormack's involvement. The most recent being just over 12 months ago with Albert having just entered his 90th year.

In December 2023 the Coober Pedy Fire Brigade under the Captaincy of Matthew Corner, dedicated an annual award to the Brigade's patriarch Albert McCormack.

The award dedicated as the Albert McCormack Firefighter of the Year Award recognises members below an officer in going above what is expected of a firefighter and making the brigade a better place.

The first Albert McCormack Firefighter of the Year Award presentation in December 2023. L-R: Capt Matthew Corner, First CFS Cpt Albert McCormack, winner of first Perpetual Trophy fire-fighter Marcus Reynolds

Albert was the first Coober Pedy Fire Brigade Captain who served a whopping 25 years from the Brigade's establishment as the Emergency Fire Service (EFS), now the Country Fire Service (CFS) in 1976 to 2001.

In 2023 the new award went to Senior Firefighter Marcus Reynolds. Marcus had attended over 56 percent of Wednesday nights and had the highest attendance for call outs by a firefighter at 42 out of 99.

After the presentation, Albert McCormack congratulated the Brigade for their progress and stated that the brigade is a lot like it was when he was involved so many years ago.

Albert said he felt happy to see the Brigade continuing to go forward and remark as to how much it has grown. He then spoke briefly about his time as a Firefighter and Captain in earlier times. Of immediate importance was the recognition of a worthy local person in receiving Firefighter of the Year, with an award that also honoured past volunteer services.

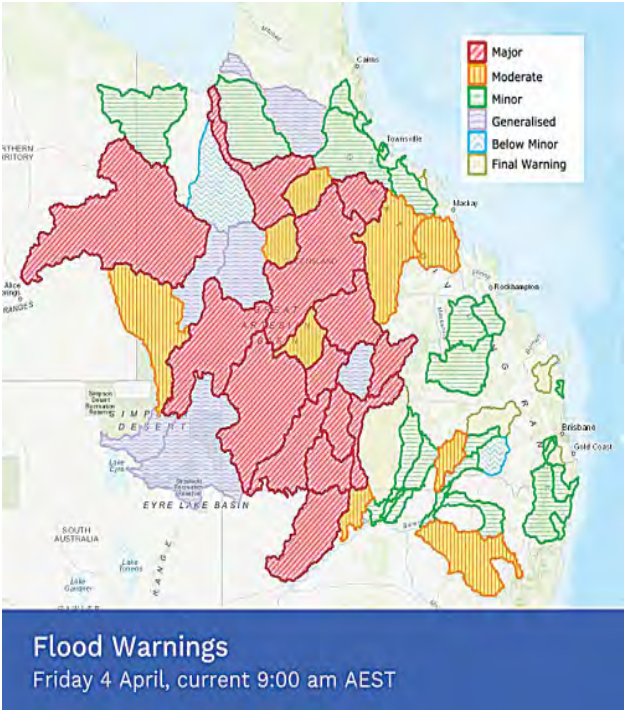

"I feel deeply honoured that the trophy is named after me as the first Brigade Captain, and I congratulate Marcus Reynolds as the first recipient", said Albert.

The fire-fighters 'take-home' acknowledgment of the Award.

FLOOD WATERS FROM CYCLONE KIRRILY QLD ENTER THE LAKE EYRE BASIN IN SOUTH AUST.

FLOODS 2025

The current flooding into the Lake Eyre Basin originates from record-breaking February rainfall in Queensland, primarily from a slow-moving monsoonal low that caused widespread flooding in the state.

This rain, particularly in the Diamantina and Georgina river catchments, has been travelling south through the Channel Country, eventually reaching the basin.

The slow journey is due to the vast flat plains and braided river systems that characterize the area.

In early February, Tropical Cyclone Kirrily brought significant rainfall to the Lake Eyre basin, contributing to the flooding in the Diamantina and Birdsville areas.

A slow-moving monsoonal low in northern Queensland in late January and early February caused record-breaking rainfall and widespread flooding, according to the Bureau of Meteorology.

The floodwaters from this rainfall have been making their way through the Channel Country, a vast, flat area with a network of braided river channels.

The Diamantina River, which becomes the Warburton River in South Australia, and the Georgina River are major tributaries carrying water towards Lake Eyre.

The water's journey south is slow, as the floodwaters spread across the flat plains and are influenced by factors like the terrain, soil moisture, and vegetation, notes a blog post on the ABC website.

The Diamantina River flows into Goyder Lagoon before eventually reaching the Warburton River and Lake Eyre, says the Australian Broadcasting Corporation

AGENDA

1. Welcome

Thank you all for attending: We welcome all Alliance members, and visitors to this meeting. We offer community members to attend three meetings before becoming members of the Alliance. Once you have attended your three meetings, please see a committee member for an application form. We are volunteers, and endeavour to assist our members with local issues and inform them of any progress we make during these uncertain times with its unsettling and constant changes. We are currently entering year 6 of what has been described as a disastrous administration exercise.

Council's debt having recently grown to $19M

Be aware that the sound system is limited, so please allow others to concentrate on hearing the reports and agenda items. Feel free to sit outside and chat. For anyone who would like to ask questions or make a point, we can bring the microphone.

2. State of our Opal Mining/Tourist Town

Public toilets have been inoperable for over two years.
Overflowing bins, particularly noted on Hutchison Street during throughout Easter.
Minimal road maintenance. Lack of forward planning for flooding events.

3. Candidates visiting our town pre-Federal election

Candidates for Grey

Tom Venning Liberal
Karin Bolton Labor
Anita Kuss Independent

4 Aged Care

Aged Care Concerns: Elderly residents are being relocated to aged care facilities outside the town due to safety concerns, violating their human rights. A model similar to Kimba's aged care facility is suggested as a solution. Crime and Safety: Persistent crime issues are affecting the community, with state government and public servants unable or unwilling to address them effectively. These issues highlight the need for better infrastructure, financial management, aged care solutions, and crime prevention in Coober Pedy.

Kimba District Hospital and Aged Care provides a range of services, including emergency care, medical/surgical care, and residential aged care. It features both a hospital with higher-level care and a hostel offering low-level residential aged care. Additionally, the facility includes Independent Living Units and a pioneer memorial village for older residents. The facility is part of the Eyre and Far North Local Health Network with Kimba's population being around 1,211. Such a facility in our town would help the long term multicultural members of this community to remain safely in their "home town."

5 General Business

6 Raffle Draw

We thank Pearl Opal Grower/Opal Jeweler Steve Koncz for his generous donation to the 'Alliance' of Opal (solids), seeded in Pearl shells and grown under the sea. Steve offered the donation to assist us with a) helping local victims of breakins and other offences; and b) to support our Community Champion Awards that appreciate and honour consistent community focused deeds without expectation of reward.

7 Awards

We move on to the Community Champion Awards where 9 members of our historic opal mining town have been chosen for their dedication, selflessness, community mindedness and consistency either over time, or having such qualities that readily stand out. In the case of student awards; we recognise that our youth are the building blocks of the future, and therefore we have worked with the school for this purpose, and to include our youth. We hope to hold these awards bi-annually.

Independent
for Grey

Independent candidate for Grey Anita Kuss visited Coober Pedy, 14th April and met with local at the RSL where she shared her views and answered questions on a variety of concerns including banking, child care, regional roads and the lack of reliable maintenance, the potential for Federal intervention on Coober Pedy's current administration plight.

Residents were interested to know about "Anita" who explained, "I am very proudly 'from the region and for the region'. I won't be told how to vote by party bosses. I'll have one job: fighting for what's fair and what's good for our region.

I grew up on our small family farm near Clare before heading off to Roseworthy College for uni. I've spent most of my life working in Grey, from Ceduna and Wudinna, Crystal Brook and the Upper Spencer Gulf – this region is home.

What we all know in this region is that for too long, decisions about our future have been made by people who don't live here, and that needs to change.

There are so many fantastic opportunities for growth right across our electorate, but they need to be led with and for locals – so they suit our needs, our goals, our values.

Right now, we often see big companies or major projects come to town, fly in a workforce from somewhere else, throw some money at a few local activities, and think that's enough. We deserve better than that. We have to get it right.

Illegal tobacco

Criminals profit. Your community pays.

What is illegal tobacco?

- Tobacco grown, manufactured or produced in Australia without a licence.
- Imported tobacco for which no duty has been paid.
- Tobacco sold without payment of taxes.

$2.7 billion

went to criminals instead of the community*

Growing tobacco in Australia for commercial sale or personal use is illegal.

*2022–23

Life cycle of illegal tobacco

Organised crime syndicates plough the land, ready to plant tobacco seedlings.

Seedlings take 2 to 3 months to grow into mature tobacco plants.

Mature tobacco plants are large and leafy and many have long, trumpet-shaped, white-pinkish flowers.

Harvested tobacco leaves are dried in a kiln and then cut and sold as loose tobacco, otherwise known as 'chop-chop'.

Would you recognise a tobacco plant?

- 2.5 metres tall
- Large green leaves
- Long trumpet-shaped, white-pinkish flowers
- May resemble kale, cabbage or corn.

Signs of an illegal growing operation

- Intense labour production between November and May
- People approaching real estate agents, landowners or farmers to lease land
- Unusual earthworks along creeks and rivers
- Unexplained and potentially unlawful use of water resources
- An unexplained strong tobacco odour
- Unusual source of loose tobacco.

ATO partnerships

The ATO is part of the Illicit Tobacco Taskforce (ITTF), which was established on 1 July 2018 to detect, disrupt and dismantle serious organised crime syndicates that deal in illicit tobacco.

Let's cut illegal tobacco off at the root

- Report growing operations
- Stop buying illegal tobacco products
- Report illegal tobacco products being sold
- Report suspicious activity.

Phone 1800 060 062 to anonymously report suspicious activity.
Visit ato.gov.au/illegaltobacco for more information.

Declared Public Precinct has been applied for at Coober Pedy to help reduce crime

What is a Declared Public Precinct?

A Declared Public Precinct is a strictly defined area that has been proclaimed to give certain powers to police to maintain public safety and order in that area.
Ongoing Declared Public Precincts
Learn all about the current Declared Public Precinct in Port Augusta

What does this mean?

To maintain public safety and order, SA Police are able to do the following in the Declared Public Precinct:

- Conduct a metal detector search of a person and any property in their possession for the presence of weapons.
- Carry out general drug detection in relation to any person within the precinct.
- Order a person / group posing a risk to public safety and order to leave the declared public precinct.
- Ban a person who commits an offence of a kind that may pose a risk to public safety and order, or behaves in an offensive or disorderly manner within the precinct (for up to 24 hours).
- Remove children from the declared public precinct who are in danger of physical harm or abuse, behaving in an offensive or disorderly manner, or otherwise committing or about to commit an offence.

These powers give police the ability to issue expiation notices for offences within the geographic area or to issue barring orders covering the precinct. These are similar to, but in addition to, licensed premises barring orders.

If you are subject to any of the above, you are legally required to comply with the officer’s direction.

What are the maximum penalties involved?

A person who is barred, but enters or remains, in the Declared Public Precinct is guilty of an offence which carries a maximum penalty of $2500.

A person who is ordered to leave, but remains, re-enters, or attempts to re-enter, the Declared Public Precinct is guilty of an offence which carries a maximum penalty of $1250.

A person can also be issued with a $344 expiation notice (Expiation fee $250 + $94 Victim of Crime Levy) for behaving in an offensive or disorderly manner within the Declared Public Precinct.

A person who carries an offensive weapon or dangerous article within the Declared Public Precinct is guilty of an offence which carries a maximum penalty of $10,000 or imprisonment for two years.

Why was this introduced?

The changes to the Summary Offences Act 1953 were enacted to maintain public safety and order in a defined area for which there is a reasonable likelihood of conduct in the area posing a risk to public safety and order and that the area is reasonable having regard to the identified risk.

Declared public precincts will significantly enhance the ability of SA Police to appropriately manage conduct that poses a risk to public safety and order for members of the community using this area.

Landcare Agriculture Biodiversity in Action Grant

Landcare Australia's Landcare Agriculture Program is offering funding to landcare and producer groups across Australia to team up with suitable experts to improve and enhance their biodiversity measurement and management skills.

This project will demonstrate how improving environmental practices boosts agricultural production, conservation efforts, community well-being, supply chain reliability, and market access.

The goal of the Landcare Agriculture Biodiversity in Action Grant is to help groups across Australia improve their understanding and management of natural assets on-farm by testing, implementing and evaluating practical initiatives that can restore biodiversity and/or increase biodiversity values. It does this by providing support – including training, field days, and on-ground trials – to advisors, producers, and landcare groups, thereby boosting productivity, resilience, and market access in line with local priorities.

Projects must contribute to achieving both of the following aims:???

- Improve knowledge, skills and confidence in biodiversity measurement, monitoring and management.?
- Test and implement practical on-ground biodiversity management actions.?

To achieve this, project activities must: Increase the capacity and capability of community, landcare groups, producer groups or First Nations agricultural businesses, to work towards the adoption of measurable best practices for sustainable agriculture.??

Directly improve biodiversity and on-farm adoption of best practice sustainable agriculture through on-farm demonstration.?

Funding Available: Projects can be delivered over 2-years or 3-years and can commence from July 2025. At least 10 projects will be funded.?

2-year projects should be to a maximum of $40,000 (ex-GST)?

3-year projects should be to a maximum of $75,000 (ex-GST)?

Projects must include on-ground activities or trials to improve farm biodiversity management.

Key dates:

Applications open Tuesday 15th April 2025, 9am AEST

Applications close Friday 16th May 2025, 5pm AEST

Grant outcome notifications 30 June 2025

Final report due 2-year projects 31 May 2027

Final report due 3-year projects 31 May 2028

Applications Groups can apply for the Landcare Agriculture Biodiversity in Action Grant on the Landcare Australia SmartyGrants Portal until 5pm (AEST) 16th May 2025.

Enquiries If you have any questions after reading these guidelines, please contact Angela Hammond at Landcare Australia, ang.hammond@landcareaustralia.com.au or 0402 921 929.
